Discover your new area

Canary Wharf is an area often overlooked in terms of its rich cultural history. In 1802, the local West India Docks were the world's busiest shipping port and the heart of the British Economy. Canary Wharf itself takes its name from the sea trade with the Canary Islands and the remnants of this rich history can be seen in the cargo cranes that surround the many waterways.

Now home to the world headquarters of numerous major banks, professional firms, and media organisations, Canary Wharf is increasingly becoming one of the most desirable places to live in the capital. Spectacular architecture, and panoramic views mean Landmark Pinnacle is a decision you won't regret.

Keep your feet on the ground

Canary Wharf can be notably tranquil, owing partly to its numerous green spaces. Cast your eyes away from the sky down to ground level and you will see the peaceful squares and some of the UK's biggest collections of public art.

Visit the Museum of London Docklands to uncover local history, or stumble across the newly installed short story station - a delightful vending machine making its UK debut, spilling out free stories on eco-paper at the touch of a button.

Crossrail Place Roof Garden offers a 300-metre part enclosed garden with an abundance of plants and trees, with historical and geographical reference to Canary Wharf. From exotic planting to attending a show in the amphitheatre, this tropical oasis is a haven from the hustle of modern city living.

Lifestyle & leisure

Home to designer labels befitting the resident thriving business community, Canary Wharf has evolved into a one stop shopping destination. Hosting five shopping malls and in excess of 120 shops, you can visit small boutiques as well as accessing beauty and fitness services all under the same roof, not to mention the largest Waitrose in the country.

Wake up and enjoy a hand-crafted Danish pastry at Ole and Steen before a visit to Wharf Kitchen for a leisurely brunch, with foods spanning from the American West Coast at Ahi Poke to the Greek shores at The Athenian, bought together in a vibrant market hall.

The surrounding area offers gyms, wellness centres and outdoor bootcamps, and is also home to Europe's largest luxury health club Thirdspace so you will never be short of things to do.

Just moments away, in North Greenwich, you have the world famous O2 Arena, an indoor arena hosting concerts from the world's top stars and elite sporting events for up to 20,000 fans.

Get a different point of view

Landmark Pinnacle is a close neighbour of the Royal Borough of Greenwich, accessed via a foot tunnel beneath the Thames across to Greenwich Park.

Take a walk through the royal park, once a stomping ground for Henry VIII before a detour to Greenwich Market- London's only historic market set within a World Heritage site. Here you can peruse antiques, art, fashion and sample delectable culinary delights.

Jump on board the Cutty Sark, celebrated historic sailing ship and fastest of its time, before taking a journey through space and time at the Royal Observatory. Finally, experience the wonders of the night sky at the London Planetarium.

Getting from A to B

Landmark Pinnacle is perfectly situated for exploring Central London, starting with St Pauls Cathedral and the Tower of London, taking a slow meander along the Thames up to the Palace of Westminster and Buckingham Palace. Cultural experiences are never in short supply with the Tate Modern, Royal Opera House and National Portrait Gallery to name just a few.

Closer to home, allow a day to explore neighbouring Stratford. A boat trip through the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park is the perfect way to witness the regeneration of the borough - and you may well spot some herons residing alongside the stunning scenery.

About Shared Ownership

Shared Ownership is a 'part-buy, part-rent' scheme, because you buy a share in the full market value of the home and pay rent on the remainder.

You can buy a share in a new home (minimum 25% share up to a maximum 75% share) and pay Poplar Harca a subsidised rent on the remaining equity (set at 1.75% on this development) along with a service charge and ground rent (if applicable). You will need a small deposit at the outset, generally a minimum of 5% deposit of your share, subject to conditions.

Buying a new home through Shared Ownership allows you to buy chain-free and you'll benefit from a 10 year build warranty. New homes offer a great specification and better energy efficiency than older properties and you can buy further shares in your home, or the entire remaining share, as and when you can afford to.

For further information

To apply for Shared Ownership you will need to complete an application form so that your eligibility for the scheme can be assessed. You can do this by visiting:
