Consent agenda

The Board approved all items on the consent agenda.

Financial items

The Board received an update on the financial performance of Poplar HARCA including the Capital Monitoring Report and the financial performance. The Board also received a Budget Parameters report.

Stroudley Walk

The Board agreed that in the event that the Development agreement between Muse and Poplar HARCA never becomes unconditional, the Board agreed to underwrite the cost of the enabling works contract to a maximum sum of £1.6 Million.

External Governance Evaluation

The Board commissioned an external evaluation of governance by 21st Century Housing Governance. They received a detailed report on the current structures of Poplar HARCA and discussed the suggested recommendations to enhance the governance structure going forward. The Board will receive an action plan in March 2022.

Carbon Neutral Strategy

The Board received options to bring the business to a carbon neutral position as soon as possible. The Board made a decision on how to do this. They will receive further options to address the path to carbon neutral homes.
