Introduction

The Housing Ombudsman introduced the Complaints Handling Code in July 2020 which sets out good practice for landlords to deal with complaints effectively and fairly. In 2024, the Ombudsman, under new powers, updated its Code which came into effect on 1 April 2024. Landlords must carry out an annual assessment against the Code and publish the results.

code	requirement	comply?	evidence, commentary, and any explanations
section 1 – definitions of a complaint
1.2	A complaint must be defined as: an expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions, or lack of action by the organisation, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting an individual resident or group of residents.	Yes	As set out in our Customer Care & Complaints Policy . ‘Section 3 – what will be logged as a complaint’ Outlined in our Complaints section of the website – ‘what is a complaint?’ Reinforced in regular training/awareness sessions.
1.3	A resident does not have to use the word ‘complaint’ for it to be treated as such. Whenever a resident expresses dissatisfaction landlords must give them the choice to make complaint. A complaint that is submitted via a third party or representative must be handled in line with the landlord’s complaints policy	Yes	As set out in our Customer Care & Complaints Policy . ‘Section 3 – what will be logged as a complaint’ and ‘Who can complain?’ Outlined in our Complaints section of the website – ‘what is a complaint?’ Reinforced in regular training/awareness sessions. Awareness materials are circulated including reminders at team meetings. Complaints submitted by third party or representatives are handled in line with our Customer Care & Complaints Policy .
1.4	Landlords must recognise the difference between a service request and a complaint. This must be set out in their complaints policy. A service request is a request from a resident to the landlord requiring action to be taken to put something right. Service requests are not complaints, but must be recorded, monitored, and reviewed regularly.	Yes	As set out in our Customer Care & Complaints Policy . ‘Section 3 – Service requests’ Outlined in our Complaints section of the website – ‘what’s not a complaint?’ Reinforced in regular training/awareness sessions.
1.5	A complaint must be raised when the resident expresses dissatisfaction with the response to their service request, even if the handling of the service request remains ongoing. Landlords must not stop their efforts to address the service request if the resident complains.	Yes	As set out in our Customer Care & Complaints Policy . ‘Section 3 – service requests’ Outlined in our Complaints section of the website – ‘what’s not a complaint?’ Staff trained to identify and log service requests resulting in a complaint. Reinforced in regular training/awareness sessions.

1.6	An expression of dissatisfaction with services made through a survey is not defined as a complaint, though wherever possible, the person completing the survey should be made aware of how they can pursue a complaint if they wish to. Where landlords ask for wider feedback about their services, they also must provide details of how residents can complain.	Yes	Survey responses are analysed individually. Where dissatisfaction is evident, contact is made with the complainant when the complainant has consented to contact. If a person wishes to make a complaint, this will be logged as such.
section 2 - exclusions
2.1	Landlords must accept a complaint unless there is a valid reason not to do so. If landlords decide not to accept a complaint, they must be able to evidence their reasoning. Each complaint must be considered on its own merits	Yes	As set out in Customer Care & Complaints Policy . 'Section 3 - what won't be logged as a complaint' Exclusions are also found on our website under 'What's not a complaint' Exclusions mirror HOS policy. Customer Relations Team triage individual complaints against the policy.
2.2	A complaints policy must set out the circumstances in which a matter will not be considered as a complaint or escalated, and these circumstances must be fair and reasonable to residents. Acceptable exclusions include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The issue giving rise to the complaint occurred over twelve months ago. • Legal proceedings have started. This is defined as details of the claim, such as the Claim Form and Particulars of Claim, having been filed at court. • Matters that have previously been considered under the complaints policy. 	Yes	As set out in our Customer Care & Complaints Policy 'Section 3 – what will be logged as a complaint' and 'what won't be logged as a complaint'. Exclusions are also found on our website under 'What's not a complaint' The substance and circumstance of each complaint will be considered on its merits against the policy PH will explain a decision to exclude a complaint from its formal process, and provide information about alternative dispute resolution, including the Housing Ombudsman Service.
2.3	Landlords must accept complaints referred to them within 12 months of the issue occurring or the resident becoming aware of the issue, unless they are excluded on other grounds. Landlords must consider whether to apply discretion to accept complaints made outside this time limit where there are good reasons to do so.	Yes	As set out in our Customer Care & Complaints Policy . 'section 3 – what will be logged as a complaint' and 'what won't be logged as a complaint'. Exclusions can also be found on our website under 'What's not a complaint' The substance and circumstance of each complaint will be considered on its merits against the policy

			PH will explain a decision to exclude a complaint from its formal process, and provide information about alternative dispute resolution, including the Housing Ombudsman Service.
2.4	If a landlord decides not to accept a complaint, an explanation must be provided to the resident setting out the reasons why the matter is not suitable for the complaints process and the right to take that decision to the Ombudsman. If the Ombudsman does not agree that the exclusion has been fairly applied, the Ombudsman may tell the landlord to take on the complaint.	Yes	As per Customer Care & Complaints Policy . – ‘Section 3 – what won’t be logged as a complaint’. If exclusion policy is exercised, matter is logged and responded to as correspondence. Reasons included in response with details of how to contact the Ombudsman to review the decision. The decision is logged on our database. This is also outlined on our website under ‘What’s not a complaint’
2.5	Landlords must not take a blanket approach to excluding complaints; they must consider the individual circumstances of each complaint.	Yes	As per Customer Care & Complaints Policy Each complaint is considered against the policy. Reinforced in regular training/awareness sessions.
section 3 – accessibility and awareness
3.1	Landlords must make it easy for residents to complain by providing different channels through which they can make a complaint. Landlords must consider their duties under the Equality Act 2010 and anticipate the needs and reasonable adjustments of residents who may need to access the complaints process.	Yes	As per Customer Care & Complaints Policy . – ‘Section 3 – who can complain?’ This can also be found on our website under ‘What is a complaint?’ All channels acceptable: in-person, phone, text, portal, website, social media, letter, petition. The Team also calls or arranges meeting to capture complaints. Representatives can make complaints when authorised by the complainant. As per Customer Care & Complaints Policy Staff/contractor training includes taking into consideration complainant needs. All policies undergo Equalities impact assessments. All staff attend mandatory EDI training, and staff and contractors
3.2	Residents must be able to raise their complaints in any way and with any member of staff. All staff must be aware of the complaints process and be able to pass details of the complaint to the appropriate person within the landlord.	Yes	As per Customer Care & Complaints Policy . – ‘Section 3 – who can complain?’ This can also be found on our website under ‘What is a complaint?’

			Reinforced in regular training/awareness sessions Complaints are regularly passed on by the teams to the corporate complaints mailbox.
3.3	High volumes of complaints must not be seen as a negative, as they can be indicative of a well-publicised and accessible complaints process. Low complaint volumes are potentially a sign that residents are unable to complain.	Yes	Complaints are increasing year on year. Complaints are monitored and reported periodically Complaints are benchmarked with peers locally (Tower Hamlets Housing Forum) and nationally (Customer First Club) to identify trends. Complaints Annual Report will be available on our website from September each year. TSM information will also be available on the website from September each year.
3.4	Landlords must make their complaint policy available in a clear and accessible format for all residents. This will detail the two-stage process, what will happen at each stage, and the timeframes for responding. The policy must also be published on the landlord's website.	Yes	As set out in our Customer Care & Complaints Policy. 'Section 2 – our commitment'. Policy on website Customer Care & Complaints Policy Information also available on our website under 'What's our complaints process' Hard copies can be sent, delivered, or talked through on request, or when identified as preferable. Information also circulated in regular newsletter.
3.5	The policy must explain how the landlord will publicise details of the complaints policy, including information about the Ombudsman and this Code.	Yes	As per Customer Care & Complaints Policy – 'Section 1 – Introduction'. Dedicated webpage www.poplarharca.co.uk/about-us/complaints/ Including information on Housing Ombudsman Service, Housing Ombudsman Scheme, complaint handling code and self-assessments https://www.poplarharca.co.uk/about-us/complaints/housing-ombudsman/
3.6	Landlords must give residents the opportunity to have a representative deal with their complaint on their behalf, and to be represented or accompanied at any meeting with the landlord.	Yes	As per Customer Care & Complaints Policy – Section 3 – Who can complain? Information also available on our website under 'What is a complaint?'

3.7	Landlords must provide residents with information on their right to access the Ombudsman service and how the individual can engage with the Ombudsman about their complaint.	Yes	Information on how to access Ombudsman Service is included on website www.poplarharca.co.uk/about-us/complaints/ and in our regular newsletter. Complainants are signposted to Ombudsman when. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Complaint falls under policy exclusion. • Complaint acknowledgement • Complaint response at stage 1 • Complaints escalation acknowledgment • Complaint response at stage 2
Section 4 – complaint handling staff
4.1	Landlords must have a person or team assigned to take responsibility for complaint handling, including liaison with the Ombudsman and ensuring complaints are reported to the governing body (or equivalent). This Code will refer to that person or team as the ‘complaints officer’. This role may be in addition to other duties.	Yes	Dedicated Customer Relations Team responsible for complaint handling, with direct line to CEO and Corporate Management Team. Dedicated complaint investigator in Technical Team which receives a significant proportion of complaints. Head of Customer Services / Director of Corporate Services, responsible for liaising with Ombudsman and reporting to governing body.
4.2	The complaints officer must have access to staff at all levels to facilitate the prompt resolution of complaints. They must also have the authority and autonomy to act to resolve disputes promptly and fairly.	Yes	Customer Relations Team has good working relationship across the organisation, working with teams and management on a day-to-day basis. The Team has authority to champion complainants to resolve disputes promptly and fairly.
4.3	Landlords are expected to prioritise complaint handling and a culture of learning from complaints. All relevant staff must be suitably trained in the importance of complaint handling. It is important that complaints are seen as a core service and must be resourced to handle complaints effectively.	Yes	Customer Relations Team sits in Corporate Services directorate, with direct and immediate access to CEO, ELT and CMT. Each department follows Customer Care & Complaints Policy, and complaints procedure. Complaints and lessons learnt reported centrally and monitored by Corporate Management Team and Services Committee. Resources regularly reviewed against changes in demand and complexity. Staff have undertaken Ombudsman’s Complaints Handling Training.
